Naze Port & Surrounding Area

Ohama Seaside Park ↑
Amami Seaside Museum

At Ohama Seaside Park there is a beach where you can relax and take in the beautiful scenery. There is also the Amami Seaside Museum which is a small aquarium where you can even feed sea turtles. By taxi, it takes about 20 minutes and costs around ¥2,000 one way.

A beloved local supermarket where you can buy ready-made island cuisine.

Amami Museum

A museum on the unique nature, culture, and history of Amami Oshima.
Entrance fee: ¥310
10-minute walk

The downtown area of Naze has a shopping street lined with small, local stores such as:

- souvenir shops selling Amami Oshima Tsumugi silk fabric
- restaurants selling keihan (a local dish with chicken, rice, and toppings) and kokuto shochu (an alcohol beverage unique to the Amami Islands)
- a local supermarket

It is a 20-minute walk from the port to the Naze Post Office.

It takes about 30 minutes by foot to travel from the port to the entrance of Ogamiyama. From the entrance, it takes about 20 minutes to reach the viewing point.

From the viewing point, you can see Naze Port. The path itself is surrounded by green vegetation and you can come across animals like birds. There is also a monument in commemoration of Amami's reversion to Japan.
